SPOTLIGHT around town

THROUGH JULY 21

Shakespeare in Love at Samuell Grand Park

Young Will Shakespeare has writer's block... the deadline for his new play is fast approaching but he's in desperate need of inspiration. That is, until he finds his muse - Viola. This beautiful young woman is Will's greatest admirer and will stop at nothing to appear in his next play. 214-559-2778, shakespearedallas.org

JULY 19-AUGUST 3

Boeing, Boeing at Irving Arts Center-Dupree Theater

It's the 1960s and swinging bachelor Bernard couldn't be happier. He has a fantastic flat in Paris and three gorgeous stewardesses all engaged to him. Of course, the ladies know nothing of each other...yet. Bernard's perfect life gets bumpy when his pal Robert drops in for a visit and catastrophe looms! 972-252-7558, irvingartscenter.com

JULY 20

Moon Day at Perot Museum of Nature and Science

Celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 moon landing with interactive fun at the Perot. Guests will be able to explore life in space, launch rockets and create lunar settlements. The film Apollo 11: First Steps Edition will screen in the Hoglund Foundation Theater. 214-428-5555, perotmuseum.org

SPOTLIGHT around town

THROUGH DEC. 29

A Christmas Carol at Wylie Theatre

Three spirits have come to visit the miserly Ebenezer Scrooge, and to take him on a fantastic journey. Brimming with joyful songs, magical spirits, and holiday cheer, the Tony Award winning Dallas Theater Center's A Christmas Carol boldly reimagines Dickens' classic tale of joy, redemption, and the spirit of Christmas. dallastheatercenter.org

DECEMBER 7

Dallas Holiday Parade in Downtown Dallas

Kick-off your family's holiday season by attending the season's most spectacular event - marching bands, festive floats, and fun family activities to carry into the New Year. The 32nd annual Dallas Holiday Parade will march down Commerce Street in Downtown Dallas to ring in the holiday season. dallasholidayparade.com

Santa's Village at Richardson City Hall

Venture up to the North Pole (the lawn at City Hall) and explore Santa's Village and even visit Ol' Saint Nick himself! There's plenty to see and do, from walking through the village to enjoying holiday themed entertainment on the main stage. The village is made up of 16 special houses, including Mrs. Claus' Bakery. 972-744-4100, cor.net

SPOTLIGHT around town

THROUGH JAN. 31

Stories of Survival:
Object. Image.
Memory. at Dallas
Holocaust & Human Rights Museum

This groundbreaking exhibition explores what survivors of the Holocaust, other genocides, and civil war have brought with them on their journeys to America. It showcases over 60 personal items from Holocaust survivors and refugees from Armenia, Bosnia, Cambodia, Iraq, Rwanda, South Sudan, and Syria. 214-741-7500, dhhrm.org

JAN. 24-FEB. 8

Pride & Prejudice
at Irving Arts Center

Bold, surprising, boisterous and timely, this Pride & Prejudice for a new era explores the absurdities and thrills of finding your perfect (or imperfect) match in life. Literature's greatest tale of latent love has never felt so theatrical, or so full of life, than in this effervescent adaptation. 972-594-6104, mainstageirving.com

JANUARY 25

Chinese New Year
at Cozby Library and Community Commons

Come celebrate the Year of the Rat! Learn about the origins and the traditions of Chinese New Year. Join the library for games, storytelling, face painting, and more. This program is held in partnership with students from CHS, New Tech, and CHS9. All ages welcome. 972-304-3655, coppelltx.gov
